Speaking of guests who might become members:

November Guests: Dennis and Cherie Duane

Cathy Mankin and Renee Owens – both lovely ladies who attended our Michele Pouliot seminar and have conformation dogs! Both had their first reading at the November Meeting!

BRAGS:

Marilynn Laudenslager: at the Silken Specialty her boy, Sasha, was BOB over 80 dogs in competition. Holy Cow! That is awesome!

Also a week later at a UKC show he had 2 more BOBs and a group One and a group Two! He is on fire!

Linda Johnston: Border Collie, Tippy, earned his Junior Dock Diving title and won a jump off with a jump of 15.5 feet! Way to get WET, Tippy!

Rainee Johnson: Bette, one of her Norwich Terriers, earned a Novice Jumpers and a Nov. Fast legs in Agility.

Cathie Mankins: (prospective member) Her Japanese Akita (UKC) went BOB and Group Two at the recent UKC shows in Dixon. Congratulations!

Dennis Collingwood: Darcy, Dalmatian, was Best Jr. in Sweeps and Best in Sweeps at the Dalmatian Specialty.

Dennis also bragged that Cana, Portuguese Pequeno Pecano finished her Championship! Yes! Good Job!

In case you were wondering, yes our May show will include Barnhunt again!

Editor's Corner:

ANNUAL CLUB BANQUET AND AWARDS PRESENTATION! Yes, our banquet will be here before you know it. It is time to get your awards applications started. They can be found on the club website. There will be more information shortly as to where to send the paperwork. Date of banquet (free to club members) is January 18th and will be at the Cold Springs Golf Club...

Let's have a huge turnout this year! Call a member who hasn't been around for a while and invite them to join you for the evening.

I know that there has been a change in regard to submitting for your awards since Shirley Carnett is in the hospital. I am sure that info will be shared shortly! You can't get an award, plaque or recognition without applying for it!

I believe we will also have the traditional raffle at the event so bring a few dollars (you will need it for wine anyway!) and something to raffle off if you feel like it!

Are you wondering why our meeting times have changed? The Breakroom now closes at 8pm so we needed to allow a bit more time for our meetings than one hour. So for now, all meetings will be at 6:30 pm.

Thanks for being members and attending meetings!
